November 2018

Title: It is that time again to ask God for help for our Parish and The United Methodist Church

Matthew 7:8-Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

Pastor Ran and I want to say "Thanks" to you. Thanks for fully supporting us and baby Caleb. We really thank you for your love, kindness, generosity, help and everything you do for our ministry. Thanks for your faithful decision to maintain our parish ministry continually with us.

Even though we have only been here 2 years and 5 months, we have done and maintained many things for the parish and will have a fruitful ministry plan.

Things we have done:

- ✦ Maintained the Parish Youth Group Meeting. Regularly, 5-15 youth have joined our program.
- ✦ Maintained a monthly children's program, Children Fun Sunday at Atlas UMC & Go Fish Program at Central UMC.
- ✦ Maintained the Invitation & Homecoming Sunday to focus on inviting new people to SCF UMC and still have a plan to apply this event parish-wide as the church evangelical event.
- ✦ Continued to introduce ourselves to the community and have participated in local church events.
- ✦ Maintained many other mission projects in the community and the Wisconsin Annual Conference.
- ✦ Maintained regular visitations to church & non-church members, once per month. Also, we are covering several emergency pastoral visitations. Anytime, the pastors are ready to visit our church members when they need our help.

Next year, our continuing priority is to be united among the three churches as one parish beyond financial obligations. For that, we will have planned 3-4 joint parish worship services, parish fundraising events for our next generation, parish missional work, parish bible study, parish youth retreat & mission trip and parish children's ministry.

Our second priority is our revival, not only spiritually, but also increasing attendance numbers. Finding our lost sheep at each church and inviting new people to our church will increase our attendance. We have a plan to launch a Homecoming & Invitation Sunday at Central UMC next year for that purpose. I am so glad to share that we gotten more people and some increase of regular attendance last and this year in the churches.

Financially, we know we will definitely have financial problems next year too. We have a 2% increase in the parish budget, almost $3,000 compared with last year. This is not a tremendous jump compared with last year, but we are having a hard time solving this problem ourselves. If we don't receive a Conference Financial Supportive Grant ($7,650) and Central's apportionment deduction ($6,774), we will struggle to solve it.

However, remember that we are still surviving and also have some positive signals to solve this financial issue, specifically that SCF UMC decided to keep their commitment, even though we were changed from 4 to 3 churches in the parish and to extend it to us until next December and prepare a $1,200 emergency fund again to help the other churches, if they still struggle financially.

Stewardship
a way of life

Central UMC has kept the financial stewardship program and Atlas has started a new fundraising event and all churches accepted the budget and have tried to overcome this difficulty with faith. Also, the D.S. and the conference may try to help us this year, not only spiritually, but also physically too.

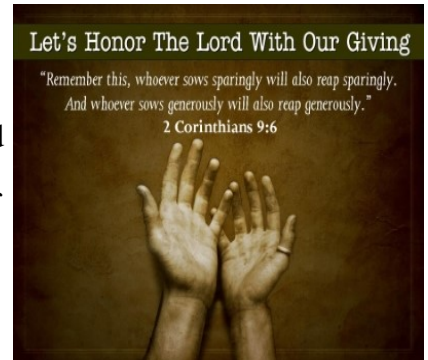

In addition, as a leader of the church and as the pastors in the Upper St. Croix Parish, we have lots of holy responsibility regarding our financial situation so we decided to keep our general offering equally to the church to help cover next year's parish budget increase, even though pastor Ran is now half time and we currently still have committed a lot to the churches. We would never shift this hardship to our congregation. We want to lead by example as the pastors of the parish.

Each church will have a Commitment & Celebration Sunday on November 11th. (The letter with the pledge card will be sent at the end of October)

Commitment and Stewardship is not merely about money. It is also about how we offer our whole lives to God and to the service of the church. We promise to serve the church with our prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness. All five of these things are marks of discipleship. Your promise will help the church in managing and maintaining the 2019 church plans, which we have worked hard to budget for this coming year. However, if you are uncomfortable with giving after your prayer, please skip it until the next year. We honor and respect all your decisions.

Let's go the next step with a humble and faithful heart. I definitely promise that we are going to share and celebrate many fruitful ministerial joys with faithful friends and God here. Thanks be to God and thanks to all of you.

Blessings, Rev. Kook Ho Kim & Rev. Ran Yoo

Top Ten Historical Thanksgiving Facts

1. Thanksgiving Day is celebrated on the fourth Thursday in November in the USA.
2. Thanksgiving Day is celebrated on the second Monday in October in Canada.
3. The Plymouth Pilgrims were the first to celebrate the Thanksgiving.
4. They celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day in the fall of 1621.
5. The Wampanoag Indians were the people who taught the Pilgrims how to cultivate the land.
6. The Pilgrim leader, Governor William Bradford, had organized the first Thanksgiving feast in the year 1621 and invited the neighboring Wampanoag Indians also to the feast.
7. The state of New York officially made Thanksgiving Day an annual custom in 1817.
8. The annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade tradition began in the 1920's.
9. Californians are the largest consumers of turkey in the USA.
10. By the fall of 1621 only half of the pilgrims, who had sailed on the Mayflower, survived. The survivors, thankful to be alive, decided to hold a thanksgiving feast.

Thanksgiving is inseparable from true prayer; it is almost essentially connected with it. One who always prays is ever giving praise, whether in ease or pain, both for prosperity and for the greatest adversity. He blesses God for all things, looks on them as coming from Him, and receives them for His sake — not choosing nor refusing, liking or disliking, anything, but only as it is agreeable or disagreeable to His perfect will.

John Wesley

Are we praying? I know we are talking a lot. I know we have concerns. I know we have questions. But are we praying?

And how are we praying? John Wesley reminds us that thanksgiving is inseparable from true prayer. It doesn't matter what our personal opinions might be. It doesn't matter who we agree with and who we disagree with. It doesn't matter how we feel or what we think. Brothers and sisters, we are to be a people of prayer — and by extension, we are to be a people of thanksgiving.

What thanksgiving prayers do we have to pray at this moment? For one, we should all pray for this wonderful church of ours. Many wonder about the future, but regardless of what we might decide, this is still God's church, "working out its own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for God's good pleasure." (Philippians 2:12b-13). As our Bishops and our Commission on the General Conference and the Judicial Council work faithfully and tirelessly to guide our General Conference in seeking wholeness and unity for the future of our church, let us never forget who is really in charge. In prayer, trust that truly "all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28).

We are a people of faith, not fear. Our love for God and our trust in Jesus the Christ form who we are. This is not a time to worry about tomorrow, but to be faithful today. Our world still stands in need of the good news of Jesus Christ. There is enough pain and suffering, violence and despair — in prayer, we ask God to continue to use us to be light in the darkness, and a source of healing, comfort, and grace. Let our prayers be filled with thanksgiving for the opportunity to serve. May we constantly pray that God may refresh, renew, reenergize, and revitalize us as disciples prepared to transform the world.

And let us pray to Launch Out! God is calling us to reach new people, more people, to continue to serve the people in our churches, and to reach out to those beyond our walls. We have the opportunity to extend love and healing, mercy and compassion to a broken world. We have the power to use our gifts and resources to not only Imagine Wisconsin Anew, but to welcome in the new creation that God most desires for our church and world.

Are we praying? We should pray more — and let our prayer be grounded in thanksgiving. Let us join together with gratitude to pray for Launch Out! "Jesus said, 'Put out into deep water and let your nets down... Don't be afraid; from now on you will fish for people.'" (Luke 5:4,10). Here is our Launch Out! prayer:

God of Grace and Promise, help us to put our trust deep into your promises and faithfully respond to your call. Strengthen our hearts, our minds, our spirits, and our bodies to be generous. Empower us with a vision for new people, new places, and new communities. Grant our churches gifts of new life and vitality. Lead us to a ministry of peace, justice, and mercy. Give us wisdom and courage; as we boldly launch out! Amen.

Abundance: Security in God

November 2018

And all ate and were filled; and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men. (Mark 6:42-44, NRSV)

The story of the loaves and the fishes illustrates God's abundance. It also illustrates the often seen configuration of Stewardship attitudes in our churches.

The needs of the many are great. It is late in the day and Jesus sees that the people are hungry and takes compassion on them. Then as now, Jesus tells his disciples to feed his people.

The leaders are skeptical. The disciples say, "There isn't enough. We don't have enough money to buy bread for all these people."

A few give generously, sacrificially. In the story, a young boy gives up his entire lunch, a few loaves and fishes.

Jesus blesses our gifts and multiplies them in ways that are difficult for us to comprehend. The few loaves and fishes given to Christ and blessed by him turn out to feed 5,000 with baskets of food left over.

Trygve David Johnson has noted, "that the ministry I serve in Christ pivots not on how much I have or what I can give, but rather on how much God gives by multiplying what I have." Often at this time of year, when our thoughts turn to Stewardship, our churches act as if there is scarcity. Tentatively asking their congregants to give a little from their scarcity. The disciples said, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." But, if we have the right Stewardship attitude, then we will experience abundance. "Bring me your nothing, ask for my blessing," says Christ, "and I will turn it into something."

So this year, let us boldly invite people to abide in the Kingdom of Abundance.
