In February I began writing a series of articles in the monthly newsletter to help explain and make Methodism easier to understand through my ministerial experiences. July's article is below. I hope these articles will help you better understand Methodism and confirm and develop your faithful identification as a Methodist. Please let me know if you have any questions or thoughts about Methodism and/or this article. All feedback is welcome!

Q) What Is Our Understanding (as Methodists) of the Kingdom of God; the Resurrection; Eternal life?

When I arrived at O'Hare International Airport in September 2011, I was amazed and surprised to see lots of various people and ethnic groups. I knew that O'Hare was a famous international airport, so there would be a lot of foreigners, but this situation continued outside of the airport. Asian, African-American, Anglo-American and Hispanic people all live together in the Chicago area. There are a lot of people living here and trying to pursue living together peacefully. In my nation of South Korea there is only one ethnic group: only Koreans. The vast melting pot in America is so amazing to me. I imagine that the Kingdom of God is like this, in that everyone, regardless of age, gender or ethnicity will be rejoicing together.

Jesus showed us what it meant to live in the Kingdom of God in this world. When Jesus wanted to bring his Kingdom into the corrupted tax system of Jerusalem, the first thing Jesus did was recruit Matthew, the tax collector, to invest his efforts to clean up the corruption of that society. The Kingdom of heaven is economically and socially egalitarian within man's world (Matthew 20:1-16). The Kingdom of heaven is the mirror of justice. There is no classism, racism, or sexism.

The Kingdom of God is where God's love, grace, and justice are fulfilled. Methodists believe that God's reign will be fulfilled not only after our deaths, but also on this earth. The Kingdom of God has already come. The coming of Jesus Christ stands for the beginning of the Kingdom of God. Jesus Christ showed the hope of the Kingdom of God. Not only is Jesus Christ equal to God, he came to earth in the form of a perfect human. He was crucified on the cross to resolve the sins of humans. Also, the Kingdom of God is hope. We can receive hope through Jesus' cross.

Personally, I had many chances to witness to patients before their death during my time as an intern chaplain. There were many different appearances before death, however I clearly remember one patient. The patient was in the last stage of cancer. Her doctor said to me that she did not have any hope of recovery. She never lost her smile, even though she was dying and in so much pain. She said to me, "I believe in heaven, so I have hope and I am not afraid of my physical death. My life was so good with Jesus." At that time, I recognized that death applied equally to all people, but people had such different experiences of death depending on their situation.

As Christians, we need to think about our death. It may be a time of fear and pain, but Jesus Christ overcame death and was resurrected. Through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we can believe in eternal life.

Blessings,

Pastor Kook Ho

Questions for a Money Autobiography, Pt 4 July 2018

From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded. (Luke 12:48)

From Writing a Money Autobiography by Dan Dick

A money autobiography is a reflection process on the role and influence of money and material possessions in our life. It challenges us to explore the past to see how our attitudes, assumptions, and values concerning money and wealth were formed.

Lifestyle Questions concerning money & wealth

- Does the fact that 2/3 of the earth's people lives below the U.S. poverty line affect your attitude toward money? Why? Or why not?
- How do you feel when people approach you for money on the street? When you receive phone solicitations for charities?
- Which words best describe you and why? Affluent, comfortable, average, impoverished, poor, struggling, wealthy, working class.
- What kind of legacy would you like to leave when you die? Of your worldly possessions, what would you leave to whom, and why?
- One strong theme of our faith is that wealth is given for the common good of the whole community. What does this mean to you? Does anyone have a claim to your money and possessions other than you?
- In what ways does your relationship with money affect your faith? In what ways does your faith affect your relationship with money?
- In what ways do you feel your relationship with money is a spiritual issue? What does it mean to you to be a good steward?

It is useful to create a money autobiography journal to record your thoughts, reflections, and feelings. Then, you can return to the money autobiography journal months and years afterward.

A Message From Bishop Jung

June 20, 2018

YES! WE ARE ONE IN WISCONSIN!

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Philippians 2:1-2

Let me begin by saying, "Thank you!" Thank you to Program and Arrangements; thank you to Conference staff; thank you to volunteers; thank you to cabinet; thank you to our board and agency leaders; thank you to our young people; thank you to worship team; thank you to our Launch Out! team; thank you for a great Learning Day; thank you to Marriott; and special thank you to visiting Bishops, guests, Thomas Kemper – and especially Archives and History for a splendid 50th Anniversary Celebration Banquet. What a Conference! We celebrated together "One with Each Other," and that unity of spirit was felt throughout.

I know we are in tense times. I know there is uncertainty about our future. I know there is disagreement about how we should move forward into the future; but despite all the possible divisions, we came together as one body, to worship, to learn, to plan, to discern, and to be family as baptized believers. What a joy it was for me! We navigated our differences to witness to the love, and power, and grace of Jesus Christ. Hallelujah!

And we stepped forward – leapt forward – in faith to Launch Out! My heart soars at this great confession of faith in our future. God is doing amazing things in the Wisconsin Conference. You, brothers and sisters, affirm my confidence and discernment – you make my joy complete – by joining together to make this faith-raising initiative a reality. As we faithfully commit to fulfill this exciting challenge, we will see miracles happen, and our world transformed. This is an incredible statement of faith in times of denominational struggle. It is a great testament to the high level of discipleship in the Wisconsin Conference.

We do not know what tomorrow may bring, but we face it together. One way or another, Wisconsin Conference will continue to serve faithfully, to risk boldly, and to proclaim confidently, we are "One with Christ, One with Each Other, and One in Ministry to All the World." I am so proud to be your bishop in these trying, and sometimes difficult circumstances. We are tested, we are tried, but we are strong. I ask you all to pray for your bishop, to pray for your Conference, to pray for Launch Out! and to pray for our delegation as they prepare for the Special Session of General Conference in 2019.

Bless you all my brothers and sisters, and thank you for an amazing Annual Conference!

Grace and Peace,

Bishop Hee-Soo Jung

Stewardship Grant Update

By Terry Giles

One of the tasks the Stewardship Grant Task Force Chose for this year was to establish a Stewardship Resource Library. This task has been accomplished.

The bottom shelf of the UMW book case is now designated to the Stewardship Resource Library. You will find several books that you may want to check out. Please use the sign out sheet in the 3 ring binder to check out the books. There is no time limit on how long you can keep them-the sign out sheet is to keep track of where the books are incase we want to use them.

Initially, I went through the books in our library and found two books related to stewardship:

1. Creating a Climate for Giving by Donald J. Joiner
2. Creative Giving by Michael Peeves, Rob Fairly, Sanford Coon

I also found 3 UMW books that I have placed in the Stewardship Resources section of the library. They are:

1. Rediscovering Values by Jim Wallis
2. One Simple Act by Debbiea Macomber
3. What About our Money? A Faith Response by Susan K. Taylor

A copy of the book we used for the Congregation wide study in Oct can also be found in this section of the library

1. Treasures by Jacob Armstrong

The Stewardship campaign we used in 2017 recommended a couple of books which I have also included in the library

1. Simple Rules for Money ~ John Wesley on Earnings, Saving, Giving by James A. Harnish
2. The Power of Enough by Lynn A. Miller.

I have also purchased a couple of books for kids. Parents feel free to check them out and talk with your kids about money.

1. Kids, Money and Values by Ptricia Schiff Estess and Irving Baracas
2. The Kids' Money Book by Jamie Kyle McGillian

Also in the Stewardship Library you will find a 3 ring binder with a copy of the Foundations Stewardship letter published monthly in our newsletter. The sign out sheet for the books is also in the front of this 3 ring binder.

It is my hope that you will take advantage of this resource and learn more about stewardship for the church.

OF JULY

More pets run away on the Fourth of July than on any other day of the year.

JULY 5TH is the busiest day of the year for animal shelters nationwide.

30% The increase in the number of lost pets between July 4th and 6th.

7.6 million
animals are lost each year

Only 26%
of dogs are returned to their owners

Over 35%
of lost pets are euthanized annually

Tips to Keep Your Pet Safe on the Fourth:

The Fourth of July is a scary time for our furry friends. The high-pitched squeals, thundering booms and bright flashing lights of the fireworks can send even the bravest dog running. On the Fourth, pets need their master's help and reassurance to keep them safe and at ease.

Ensure your dog gets plenty of exercise during the day before the fireworks begin.

Provide a safe place for them to retreat like their crate or bed and check on them every few hours.

Make sure your dog has a collar and ID tag, and make sure their Tagg GPS Pet Tracker is fully charged.

Keep your pets indoors, lower blinds and close the windows so they won't be frightened by the noise and bright lights.
