A STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

“Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy.” (1 Corinthians 4:2)

The Apostle Paul’s statement about stewardship is a definition. To be a steward means to have been given a trust.

It is amazing how much God is willing to entrust to mortals. We are entrusted with the well-being of God’s creation, with the mysteries of the Gospel, with spreading of the Gospel to all the nations of the Earth, and with the health of the Church. That’s a lot of trust.

What do we do to earn that trust? Nothing. As it is with the unmerited grace that is offered to us as disciples, so it is with the unmerited trust offered to us as stewards. We say, “Yes” to the invitation and then, if we follow the plan, we grow and mature in stewardship.

Jesus points the way to growth in stewardship by admonishing us to start small. “Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own?” (Luke 16:10-12).

In stewardship, faith is not what you believe, it is what you do to grow the Kingdom.

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.” - Proverbs 9:10

Traditionally, the United Methodist Church celebrates Aldersgate Day on May 24 to commemorate the day in 1738 when John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist movement, experienced assurance of his salvation. He had a Holy Spirit moment through his Aldersgate experience. While he was walking on Aldersgate Street, he listened as someone was reading Martin Luther's preface to the Epistle to the Romans, and this led him to experience his Holy Spirit moment. “While he was describing the change which God works in the heart through faith in Christ, I felt my heart strangely warmed. I felt I did trust in Christ, Christ alone, for salvation; and an assurance was given me that He had taken away my sins, even mine, and saved me from the law of sin and death.” Later, before John Wesley died, he said his last words that “The best of all is.. God is with us.”

As I remember “Aldersgate Day” and the life of John Wesley, I hope and pray that all my parishioners including my soon to be born baby would have at least one unforgettable Holy Spirit moment so that they would know and confess that “the best of all is God is with us.” During this time of being pregnant, I have prayed a lot for my first baby and thought about what kind of person this one would be. Millionaire? Celebrity? Smart person? Healthy person? It all sounds very tempting, but I truly want my child to be a man of God who loves God first and makes God a priority. Because I believe that “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight” as Proverbs 9:10 said, and “The best of all is.. God is with us.”

Through a mentoring meeting, I came to know about the web site called “Father's love letter.” It has a love letter from God based on Bible verses and it is written in 100+ languages. I was very touched by each phrase of this letter, and it was another Holy Spirit moment for me. I read this letter over and over for my soul and for my baby's soul. And I would like to share it with you all for your soul! I hope and pray that you also have a Holy Spirit moment through God's love letter for you.

Blessings,

Pastor Ran

GRANTSBURG: MISSIONS & MEETINGS

STEWARDSHIP TASK FORCE UPDATE

Apportionments are a critically vital way we engage in the work of God's salvation. Through giving, the good news of Jesus Christ is not only proclaimed, but mentored, nurtured and shared around the globe. We could not be in such important and impactful work were it not for the faithful, sacrificial giving of individuals, congregations and conferences throughout the United Methodist Church. What we give is not just a nice thing, it is also a matter of salvation in body, mind and spirit for the giver.

We cannot do everything, but we can do just about anything we put our hearts and minds to. It is not resources we lack, but faith and imagination. When the vision is big enough and compelling enough, the financial resources appear. The reason we struggle to pay our apportionments is not that we lack adequate funds, it is that we are unaware of the amazing grace and wonderful work our apportionments make possible.

Our apportionments have been reduced for 2017. We should pay our apportionments first ~ each and every month pay our apportionments on time rather than waiting to see what we have left. With our apportionments having been reduced, we should start putting God first. He has provided us with an extraordinary opportunity. We should prayerfully consider what it would mean in our congregation to make paying our apportionments on time a top priority.

JUNE MISSION: Central will fundraising for Paul Webster. The Rev. Paul L. Webster is a missionary with Global Ministries. Originally from New Richmond, Wisconsin, Webster has been serving at the Mujila Falls Agriculture Centre in Kanyama, Zambia, since 1992. Mujila Falls is located in northwestern Zambia near the source of the Zambezi River. Webster's work as a rural economic development specialist serves the needs of impoverished communities by addressing root causes of poverty. Through training and education in small animal husbandry, sustainable agriculture, tree nurseries, and much more, Webster is helping communities in Zambia provide for themselves an income from small-scale, family-based production activities. Webster said, "God has provided abundant land, water, and plant and animal resources to Africa; it is up to Christ's church to provide knowledge, faith, and hope to its people."

Vacation Bible Camp ~ August 8-10 at Lake 26

Benefits of VBS...

- ✦ Children learn about religion through fun, age-appropriate activities.
- ✦ Life lessons help every child learn how to be a good person and a friend to others.
- ✦ Perfect for younger children to get a feel for camp without having to go away overnight.
- ✦ Kids meet new friends who share their beliefs.
- ✦ You don't have to be a church member to attend VBS.

Vacation Bible School is a wonderful opportunity for kids to socialize and learn more about religion in a relaxed setting. VBS has something for everyone. While activities are centered around teaching kids about God, VBS combines fun and learning without the formality of a Sunday service. Watch the bulletins and July newsletter for more details.

What Makes A Dad

*God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad*
