In everything we have won more than a victory because of Christ who loves us.— Romans 8:37

The 2018 Winter Olympics is now proceeding in my homeland, PyeongChang, South Korea. While I was watching the opening ceremony, I felt so sorry that I could not be there in person with my family. Anyway, whenever I watch the Olympic games, I feel so proud of all the athletes no matter the outcomes. I can't imagine how hard they have trained for that moment!? Every moment, they might have fought with their limits in body, mind, and emotion for the game.

PyeongChang 2018™

As I enjoy watching the Olympic games, I learned a lot of new things, especially from the Olympic Creed, Motto, and Symbol. First, The Olympic Creed is a quote by Baron de Coubertin: "The most important thing in the Olympic Games is not to win but to take part," just as the most important thing in life is not the triumph, but the struggle. The essential thing is not to have conquered, but to have fought well." Secondly, The Olympic Motto consists of the Latin words Citius, Altius, Fortius, which means "Swifter, Higher, Stronger." The motto, introduced in 1924, is meant to spur the athletes to embrace the Olympic spirit and perform to the best of their abilities. Thirdly, The Olympic Symbol is five colored rings linked together. These rings represent the continents of North and South America, Africa, Asia, Australia, and Europe. They also symbolize the uniting of athletes from all over the world to compete at the Olympic Games.

These three things remind me of the Christian life. Although each person is different, we all are called by God to work and live together for the kingdom of God and to be united as one body of Christ. Also the goal of the Christian life is not to be in first place but to finish well according to the guidance of God. There is no life without struggle, but in the midst of suffering our faith leads us to be swifter, higher, and stronger so that we can fight well with courage and finally overcome it. Our final goal of life is not a victory on earth, but we go for the everlasting victory in Christ Jesus. I hope you remember this as we live the season of Lent.

Blessings,
Pastor Ran Yoo

UMCOR SUNDAY

Special Offering
March 11, 2018

When disaster strikes around the globe, so many watching the drama unfold on our living room televisions feel entirely helpless. As responders around the globe scramble to help survivors, the United Methodist Committee on Relief, UMCOR, is prepared to act. Since 1940, when UMCOR's forerunner was established to meet the needs of those suffering overseas at the onset of World War II, we've continued to respond to those in desperate need—today throughout more than eighty countries around the world. The response of UMCOR isn't something "they" do, it's something "we" do. When You Give You Equip Christ's Body to Serve in His Name! That's because your generous giving to UMCOR Sunday (formerly One Great Hour of Sharing) is what allows UMCOR to act as the arms and legs of Christ's church, moving toward the most vulnerable in their darkest days. Convinced that all people have God-given worth and dignity—without regard to race, religion or gender—together we are assisting those impacted by crisis or chronic need.

Watch your weekly bulletin inserts for more information on UMCOR Sunday. As we respond, we recognize Jesus in those who are reeling in the wake of disaster.

A STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

GIVING
Leave a Legacy
March 2018

We recently shared with Stewardship leaders, this service of the Wisconsin United Methodist Foundation. Now we share it with you.

By preparing a will, you can extend your Christian stewardship beyond your lifetime. In addition to providing for your family's needs, your will can direct how your assets will continue to support the missions and ministries you have supported in life.

A simple, cost-effective way to do it is to insert this text in your wills: "After all my bills are paid, I want [x] percent of my estate to go to the Wisconsin United Methodist Foundation, Inc., to be used for such exempt purposes of the Foundation as are provided in a specific written instrument."

Then you provide the Foundation with a letter of instruction that says, "In accordance with the will I have prepared, I have designated that [x] percent of my estate will be given to charity. The Wisconsin United Methodist Foundation, Inc. has been designated to receive this bequest. I request the Foundation to distribute this bequest as follows:"

You may then specify percentages to be given to a specific United Methodist church, Wisconsin UM health or welfare ministry, UM college or seminary, specific missionary or local community outreach organization. In fact any religious or not-for-profit organization.

You may want to spend some time praying and thinking about the kinds of ministries that you have a calling to support. UM Global Ministries has a browsable, searchable list of mission projects by category, region, focus area, population served, etc. My wife, Pastor Barbara Wells, and I recently added this provision to our will to remember the causes we support.

If you need assistance with preparing your letter of instruction or wish to know more about leaving a gift to your favorite church or charitable organization, contact the Wisconsin United Methodist Foundation toll-free at 1-888-903-9863 or email us at wumf@wumf.org.
