July 2019

*Fathers, do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.
(Ephesians 6:4)*

Parish Youth Summer Retreat in Green Bay

I went to the Summer Retreat with three boys in Green Bay, WI. This retreat is one of the annual events for our joint youth programs in the NW District, which is hosted by Faith UMC in Superior. I really want to say "Thank You" to Rev. Joel (pastor in Superior UMC) and his congregation who gave us a great opportunity to join this event.

I was a little nervous and afraid before going to this retreat. My worry was that I needed to spend one night and two days with three energetic and active boys, which included 9 hours riding in the car with them. I know our youth were worried about spending all that time together with the pastor, too. I understand that it is not an easy job for them.

This retreat had a challenging schedule. There were four hours and thirty-five minutes of driving one way from St. Croix Falls to Green Bay, and I needed to drive on unfamiliar roads during the evening. Also, I needed to go back to Green Bay again to participate in the 2019 Wisconsin Annual Conference, after dropping the boys off at SCF.

However, God worked perfectly and prepared everything beyond our human concerns and thoughts. Our youth and I had a good time in the car during our 9-hour trip with peace, fun and joy. We grew closer in our relationships through the playing of games, programs and sleeping during the night as the same group.

In addition, our youth had a great opportunity to meet new Methodist friends from other UM churches. We met 28+ new friends there and finally, we learned and studied about worship, mission, hymns, and UM connectionism as the body of Christ.

Some people asked me why only 3 youths participated in this event and why the pastors put lots of energy and passion into the youth group. The major reason that only three of our youths could go is because our youths are so busy and have lots going on in their schedules, not only during school time but also during the vacation. Also, it is so hard to gather together as a group because of our geographical issue.

However, pastor Ran and I believe that "There is a time for everything" (Ecclesiastes 3:1) and our current role in regards to our next generation in the parish is as the people who spread seeds to the field. Even though, we may not have a chance of a tremendous planting from our youth during our ministry term, we are convinced that God will work and allow it to have a good harvest in God's time.

I want to ask you to pray every day, specifically for our next generation in the parish. Ephesians 6:4 encourages us to bring our children up in training and instruction of the Lord. What is our Christian duty and what do we hand over as an inheritance for our next generation? The clear answer is to nurture them with love in the body of Christ and hand down a faithful legacy like our parents did.

Praying for our children every day will be a meaningful step towards the nurturing of our next generation in faith. Again, thanks for the prayers and support for our parish youths. Your prayers and support made our trip overflow with the grace of God. ~ Blessings,

Pastor Kook Ho

Annual Conference Reflections: Thriving in the Wilderness

“Then Moses said to Aaron, ‘Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, “Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining.”’ And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked towards the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. The Lord spoke to Moses and said, ‘I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, “At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning, you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.”’ Exodus 16:9-12

My blessed brothers, sisters, and siblings in Christ Jesus, I give you my thanks and appreciation. I am honored and proud to be the bishop of this great Wisconsin Conference. Together this past weekend we spent time wandering in our wilderness of confusion, disagreement, discernment, and desire to be a faithful church. It was not an easy time. There were ups and downs, times to celebrate and times to repent. We struggled in our work to be civil and respectful, and I was reminded to say clearly what behaviors would be acceptable – respectful disagreement and civil confrontation – and the unacceptable – bullying, disrespecting, and injuring. But we came through it all together, and we saw the glory of the Lord in the cloud. Everything may not be clear, but we see God in our midst!

I am still processing all that happened, but I rejoice again in our worship celebrations, the excellent and challenging Bible study provided by our brother, Peter Miano, the energy and faithful spirit of our young people, and the obvious, widespread desire to do justly and rightly to all people.

Our Annual Conference indicated in clear terms its dissatisfaction with the actions of General Conference to pass the Traditional Plan. Together we strategized ways to be faithful with our apportionment giving, to witness to our desire for full inclusion of LGBTQIA+ peoples, to bring the language of our Book of Discipline in line with our lived reality, and to move forward into a more loving and grace-filled church. It is clear that we have a long way to go, that we must make amends and apologize for hurtful actions, but that there is deep commitment to work together for a better, more loving church.

This is true not only of the LGBTQIA+ people who question whether The United Methodist Church really cares about and for them but is equally true for many of our racial and ethnic people who deal daily with destructive acts and attitudes of racism. In some of our Christian communities, hurtful and hateful words and actions communicate to both clergy and laity leadership that they are not welcome, not respected, and not supported. This is not true everywhere and of a majority of people, but racism in any form, in any place, and at any time is not an acceptable expression of Christians. Part of our wilderness is particular and institutional racism, and it is a priority for Wisconsin Conference to work to eliminate racism in all its forms.

We elected a slate of General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference delegates that reflect our desire to change and move forward. We elected a diverse and future-focused delegation of thoughtful, faithful, and dynamic clergy and laity. Pray for your delegation as they prepare for General Conference 2020. We have an amazing bunch of people to represent us.

We are committed to work on a Wisconsin option – a Wisconsin way forward to be a faithful and loving church, with great vision for mercy and justice ministries, for reaching new people in new places, and to strengthen our existing ministries, we reaffirmed our desire to be good stewards of all we possess. Our Launch Out! campaign is still very much a priority, but we voted to “pause,” to give time for local churches to address their response to our general church decisions.

We affirmed our desire to stay in Sun Prairie and to own our Conference Center. In the midst of massive and disruptive change, we still hold our Conference Center. By God's grace, we will find new and better ways to address our administrative needs. We still face severe budgetary challenges. We still have less than we need to fully fund all our key ministries. We are in different places in our desire to financially support the denomination and connection. But we are in all these things together, and are working together on a Wisconsin way forward.

We are in a time of turbulence and change. This is wilderness at its wildest. Tempest and storm, intense heat, high winds – together we acknowledged that we cannot get through without God's help and guidance. But God makes us strong. God keeps us strong. What looks so overwhelming at the moment will seem less intimidating as time goes by. We have dynamic young leaders. We have powerful cross-cultural leaders. We have clergy and laity leaders committed to the faithful ministry and witness of the Wisconsin Conference. Is everyone happy with where we are? No. Many are unhappy. But we are still faithful. This is a measure of faith – following Jesus, serving God, loving neighbor whether we are happy or not.

Wilderness time is not fun time, but it is rich time. Wilderness time is not comfortable time, but it is valuable time. Wilderness time is not stable time, but it is essential time. Our deepest desire is not just to survive the wilderness, but to thrive. We come through wilderness stronger, wiser, better prepared and more confident. I am encouraged by our time together. As a Conference, we have spoken. As a Conference, we have witnessed to inclusiveness, justice, and a place for all at God's table. Do we still disagree? Yes. Is there still pain? Yes. But do we believe – truly know – that God is with us? Undeniably YES. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Grace and Peace,

Bishop Hee-Soo Jung

MISSIONS UPDATE: Grantsburg Alliance of Churches Progressive Dinner was a success and a lot of fun for those who attended. We raised $5,258.60 between the dinner tickets, meat drawing and the generous donations of baskets for auction. All food for the dinner was donated by the eight churches involved. Thank you to the Men's and Woman's groups of Central, each donated a basket for the auction. Put May 2, 2020 on your calendar for next year's progressive dinner. This school year between the Merry Market sales, Progressive dinner and some generous donations we were able to raise the $12,000 need to support the Salvation Army's Backpack program for the Grantsburg School District. We will start collecting School Supplies, see the Mission board at church for the requested supplies. Thank you for your continued support of our mission efforts. ~ Deb Hammer

HELPING HANDS

GIVING

Integrating Missions with Other Giving

July 2019

It is by the grace of God that a congregation is permitted to gather visibly in this world to share God's Word and sacrament. Not all Christians receive this blessing. The imprisoned, the sick, the scattered lonely, the proclaimers of the Gospel in heathen lands stand alone. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Life Together, 1938.

Mission giving is a principal way we, the visible fellowship of Christians, stay connected with the invisible fellowship of Christians. We support local outreach such as food pantries or homeless shelters, conference projects like flood relief, national or international projects like elimination of malaria. Special Sunday collections support UMCOR, international peace, social justice, world communion, and minority ministries. The Golden Cross Sunday collection supports Wisconsin health and welfare ministries. We also support specific missionaries.

Regrettably, we have gotten away from integrating mission giving into our church budget and planning, relying instead on individual giving and pass-throughs. I think this is a mistake and that we should intentionally embrace mission giving as a percentage of our budget (10 percent has a nice ring to it). If our overall budget were $160,000, then the mission budget would be $16,000. We should allow perhaps half the mission budget to be accounted for by pastoral salary, office staff salary, office supplies and building costs related to mission planning and activities (i.e., things we already pay for). However, the other $8,000 would come from annual pledged giving and special appeals. This approach would result in more mission giving than most churches are now doing.

Encourage your congregation and leaders to integrate mission giving into the annual budget. In this way, you will be able to intentionally give and communally celebrate your mission support.
