Pastor Jenny Lee

“God of Ebenezer, Thus far has the Lord helped me.”

“Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer saying, “Thus far has the LORD helped us.” (1Samuel 7:12)

I am happy to serve God in the Upper St. Croix Parish United Methodist Church (UMC). Serving God in the Upper St. Croix Parish UMC is not an accidental event in my life. I believe that it is one of God’s plans. I hope that God will use me freely in God’s will through the Upper St. Croix Parish UMC.

I am from Chicago, but originally from South Korea. Since 2007, I have been in the United States studying theology and serving God. I have received a Master of Arts (M.A., 2009), a Master of Theology (Th.M., 2011), and a Doctor of Philosophy in Christian Social Ethics (Ph.D., 2016) from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago. Also, I have received a Master of Divinity from the Garrett Evangelical-Theological Seminary (2018). While I was studying, I have joined to plant a new church, and served the church as a director of young adult’s ministry for 11 years. I have also served a hospital as a chaplain for 1 year. I want to introduce how God works for me and how God came to me, rather than whom I am.

When I cried, no one was around me. It was dark, cold, and horrible. No, honestly, it was too horrific for me to cry. I gave up all hope in my life because my entire situation pushed me to hell. I knew that many people who were around me, including my friends, my family, and my medical doctors were trying to help me. However, everything felt useless to me at that time because my doctor said, “You do not have any hope of walking again properly.” In the middle of this depression, I saw a light which was shining. A hand approached me from the center of the shining light. Suddenly, the hand lifted me to heaven from hell. God gave me God’s hand to walk again. God said to me, “Little girl! Talitha kum, I say to you get up! (Mark 5:41)”

I remember that I first met God at that time. When I had a terrible traffic accident in 1990, my life changed drastically. It was when I was 25 years old. My spine was broken. I couldn’t walk or sit. My right leg was paralyzed for almost two years. I had to stay at the hospital for three years. The doctors told me that there was little hope of complete recovery. I was hopeless. There were times that I felt very depressed. In the middle of this depression, I met a pastor.

He had come to visit a girl with whom I was sharing the hospital room. The pastor prayed for her. The girl had also been involved in an accident. Her condition was even worse than mine. She had several broken bones, and her facial skin was ripped off. She looked horrible. However, she always had a smile on her face. First I couldn’t understand her. However, then I realized that she was a firm believer. I asked the pastor if he could pray for me, too. He prayed for me, putting his hand on my head. He prayed for the healing of my body and soul. He visited me several times during my stay in the hospital, preaching, and counseling me.

Meanwhile, my doctor suggested surgery, but he said, “Do not think that you can recover one hundred percent.” However, I had confidence that I would recover totally. I believed that God would heal me through my doctor’s hands. I had surgery on my spine in February in 1992. However, after the surgery, I did not wake up from the anesthesia for a while.

I met God in the coma. I shouted to God in the shining light, “Please help me. If you save me, whatever you ask me I will do it, and wherever you send me, I will go there.” As soon as I finished my words, a big hand approached me and lifted me. Physically, I stayed in the ICU for about one month. After one month, I woke up and recovered totally.

Before this time, I rejected God. However, God came to me as a God of healing and as a God of hope. I was even against my family and friends who believed in God already. I believe that God revealed Godself to me and invited me to confess my sin and ask God for forgiveness. God just embraced me.

After this, I believed that God was and continues to be with me whenever I am joyful or sad. God lifted me from hell, where there was no hope and only horrible suffering to heaven, where there is hope, joy, and I am with God always. I believe that God wants to heal the world, which is suffering in horrible affliction and gives hope to all people in the world who are the oppressed without any hope as God did for me. God sent me to the world as God sent the pastor to me as a testifier, who knows God as the healer of love.

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year the Lord’s favor.” (Luke 4:18-19)

God gave us the good news, which is to free the prisoners, to recover the sight of the blind, and to release the oppressed. The good news is Jesus Christ, who is the Lord of liberation, the Lord of Healing. Jesus Christ died on the Cross, was resurrected, lifted to heaven, and sent us the Holy Spirit. It is good news. God sent me “to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed” and to proclaim the kingdom of God.

It is impossible to measure and calculate how much God loves me and the world because of the impossibility of measuring love, but I trust that God loves me and the world. I understand that the love of God should be spread everywhere through the people who know it. I learned that the glory of God is revealed by how I live. Therefore, God is always at the center of my life. I pray that God brings healing to everyone who is suffering or feeling hopeless through me, just as God brought healing to me through a pastor. I hope that I could be a channel of God’s grace for the Upper St. Croix Parish United Methodist Church.

Blessings,

Pastor Jenny

A STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

You cannot serve God and Money. “No one can be a slave of two masters; you will hate one and love the other; you will be loyal to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.” (Matt. 6:24)

A senior high Sunday School class gathered together, again, for their first series of classes in the fall. The topic was “What does Jesus say about money?” The one passage almost everyone knew was, “You cannot serve God and money.”

One of the boys shared that he had taken a new job that was going to require him to work all day every Saturday and every Sunday morning. The group responded, “You can’t do that, we need you in this class!” He replied, “But, I’ll be here for youth group at night.” One of the girls asked, “What do you need the money for?” He replied, “Car insurance and gas money, for sure. Then, there’s other stuff I want. My parents said that if I bought a car I had to be responsible for it.”

One of the leaders asked, “Now, how much of what you expect to earn by working every Saturday and Sunday do you really need to cover your car expenses?” After thinking for a while and putting pencil to paper, he answered, “I probably only need to work on Saturdays to earn enough for my car expenses. Maybe I could talk to my boss and only work every other Sunday morning or one night a week, instead. She did ask me if Sunday mornings were okay because she knew I was a member of this church.

I told her it was okay because I didn’t want to lose the job. I’ll go over there today right after church and see what I can do. I know I’d really miss being in class with all of you, too. Thanks!”

And, Jesus said, “Let those with ears to hear, listen!”

Praying for an End to Violence

“Now the earth was corrupt in God’s sight, and the earth was filled with violence.”

Genesis 6:11

As I come home from a wonderful trip to Korea, Bangkok and China, my heart breaks for the victims of gun violence, most recently in El Paso and Dayton, but for those across the country almost daily. According to USA Today, there have been 250 mass shootings in the first 215 days of 2019. People are picking up assault weapons to randomly shoot and kill innocent victims. This is tragic, this is terrible, and this is wrong. We must acknowledge that many in our society are succumbing to “a corruption” and they are “filled with violence.”

But it is important not to demonize the shooters. In many cases, these people are suffering a breakdown of sorts. They are examples of an illness of spirit and mind that is prevalent in our culture. Beyond the gun violence, hate crimes and violent demonstrations that are becoming the acceptable norm in our United States, there is an undercurrent of anger, fear, rage and resentment. It is difficult to feel good about a country where so many citizens see violence as their only choice, and where so many live in fear of others.

In a Wisconsin University study, 61% of Madison citizens surveyed feel safer having a gun. However, in the same poll, 87% feel less secure knowing that others have guns. I anticipate that this call to pray for healing for the victims, families, friends (as well as shooters and their families and friends) will cause some to be very angry that I oppose gun violence – each time I write a call for prayer concerning mass shootings I receive messages from upset people defending guns – but this isn’t about “guns” in general. I am not saying people shouldn’t be allowed hunting rifles or even handguns for home self-defense, if that is what people desire. However, our American culture has gone weapons crazy. In a New York Times article, it is reported that over 40% of all guns currently in America have been obtained illegally, are automatic or semi-automatic assault weapons, and they are only used for attack. These are the weapons that I oppose. Including such things as rocket launchers, grenades, bayonets, machetes, knives, and other weaponry in addition to guns, Americans spend $13 billion each year (NBC News). Placing this in perspective, in our United States all Christian mission giving combined is about $5.2 billion a year.

But much of this is beside the point. Guns and the way they are abused in our culture is a huge issue that will not be resolved easily. Underlying the fact of gun violence is an abject despair and hopelessness, combined often with anger and a sense of helplessness and injustice, that leads people to lash out in hurtful and hateful ways. In most cases these people aren’t “monsters,” but are merely seriously ill or desperate people who lack relationships that help them cope in non-destructive ways.

Violence, in all its forms, is evidence of the brokenness of our humanity and indicates the deepest meaning of sin – separation from God. We are failing to live fully into God’s will and God’s vision for all people – unconditional love and acceptance that makes sure there is a place for everyone, and that no one “fall through the cracks” into a dark place of depression and despair.

So, what can we do? There are many small ways that we can act and do what is within our power to work for a solution. First, and always, pray. Pray for victims and their families. Pray for the communities impacted by acts of hate and violence. Pray for those who act with violence and destruction and their families. Pray for people living in fear of violence, and for those who consider violence as an acceptable course of action. Begin to write to our governmental representatives and to the NRA to ban the sale and ownership of weapons of war. It is one thing to own a hunting rifle or a handgun. It is something quite different to have an AK-15 or AK-47, or an AT4 rocket launcher. When we make ownership of weapons of mass destruction normative in our culture, we cannot be surprised when such weaponry is used.

Our Christian witness should always be one of peace. In the face of violence, in the face of division, in the face of aggression, and even in the face of war, Christians call for God's vision from Isaiah 2:4 –

“He shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples;
they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
and their spears into pruning-hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war anymore.”

So, my beloved siblings in Christ, pray for peace. Pray for healing. Pray for reconciliation. Pray for true community and inclusiveness, so that no child of God will lose hope, will despair, and will pick up a weapon to cause harm to another beloved child. Pray for an end to violence and to every contributing factor. Blessed are the peace-makers; thanks be to God.

Grace and Peace,

Bishop Hee-Soo Jung
