A STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

Is it time for Change? ~ March 2021

“Even now,’ declares the LORD, ‘return to me with all your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning.” Rend your heart and not your garments. Return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love, and He relents from sending calamity. Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave behind a blessing — grain offerings and drink offerings for the LORD your God.” ~Joel 2:12-14

With February comes the cold dark days of Lent. Are you ready? Are you ready to seriously look inside yourself? Are you ready to be honest about what is godly and what is not? Are you ready to change?

Change is a great theme word for Lent (and all of 2020). Many things changed health, wealth, and politics. It changed without us trying and definitely without us wanting it to change. But in Lent, things change because we make them change. It is our time to change our habits, minds, action, and internal/external words to become more like Christ.

Do you need to change your change? Think about how much you give to the church. Should/can you give more? Maybe your answer is “I don’t know.” Think about this: How much do you spend each month going out to eat. How much money do you spend on coffee? How much money do you spend on fun item, hobbies, and events? Now compare those numbers to the amount you give to God each month. Do you need to make a change?

“Living to Eat or Eating to Live?”

“So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.”
(1 Corinthians 10:31)

Have you ever heard the ironic phrase that human beings either live to eat or eat to live. Which one best fits you? If food is readily available due to financial circumstances, or if you have to be on a special diet because of a medical condition, perhaps you may think of that phrase differently. However, whether you relate to the former or the latter, none of us can deny that all humans have to eat to sustain their lives. Food is indeed significant for human life. Food has developed, relating with human culture, environment, and history, and then each country or region has its unique food or dish.

Koreans were hungry and starving through the Korean War. So, their greeting words were, “did you eat breakfast?” Or, “did you eat lunch?” At that time, perhaps many Koreans looked for food to live. Nowadays, however, Koreans changed their greeting words, “what kinds of food did you have for lunch?” Or, “what kinds of food are we going to have for dinner?” Even in the city, there are many traffic jams during lunchtime because people drive around looking for “good restaurants.” To eat their favorite food, they make a line in front of the restaurant for more than one hour or drive up for a few hours to get it. In these situations, somehow, they seem to like living to eat. Whatever, all of us have to have food, at least in everyday life. The Scripture also shows us the importance of food in everyday life. God fed the Israelites “Manna” every day in the wilderness during their journey to the Promised Land. Jesus also used to feed people in his ministry. He taught us to pray, “Give us our daily bread” in the Lord’s Prayer. Such as, all people need daily food.

I was picky about food in my childhood. It caused me to be weak physically. However, my taste has totally changed after fasting for forty days in 2000. Through the fast, I learned to be grateful for food. I can eat everything except chili peppers. The problem I have is a food allergy to chili peppers. It is funny because I can’t eat most Korean food, which are spicy. I think that God may control my taste to be healthy and to live in the United States. I remember that the Apostle Paul said, “Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God” (1 Corinthians 10:31). Therefore, whether I can eat, or can’t eat, I give thanks to God.

Contrary to my childhood, I enjoy eating food, especially having food with good people together. Jesus also enjoyed having food with his people together. Actually, for Jesus, feeding people or eating food with his people was one of his important ministries. People used to ask him, “why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?” Jesus strangely answered them, “It is not healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.” But, we know that he became their friends, who were cast out from society. Such as, eating food together or sharing food with our neighbors is perhaps a critical food ministry. So, I appreciate food ministries such as the food pantry/ food shelf and potluck fellowship.

Since I have come to the U.S., I lived in a school housing unit at the Lutheran School of Theology for eight years with two roommates. I used to have food parties, inviting many people. Unusually I cooked Korean food. In the beginning, I invited my roommates, and their friends and my friends, and then the party became an international potluck later. I invited many students to the party. It became a famous party, especially for international students at the school.

Food is the love we share. Koreans say, “The people who eat together at a table are a family.” People’s warm hearts like to share food, which means that it is love. In the Lenten season, I hope you may think of people who need food and work on the food ministry. I pray for food ministers that God’s grace and peace be with them. I hope that all the people can enjoy the food that God allows, but with control and gratitude. “So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.”

Blessings,

Pastor Jenny Lee

JOURNEY

And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness for forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him. (Mark 1:12-13)

My beloved Wisconsin siblings in Christ, we enter again into the period of Lent through the archway of Ash Wednesday, a day of repentance, contrition, and kenosis (self-emptying and abasement). We follow the footsteps of Jesus, sent by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness for forty days. During this Lenten period leading to Holy Week and Easter, we tend to focus on temptations by Satan and the threat and danger of the wild beasts, but this year I invite us to focus on the angels.

Most people in the United States tend to focus on destinations – places we want to go, things we want to accomplish, people we want to meet, things we want to own. Ends justify means, and we don't give much thought to our processes of movement, preparation, saving, or planning. Process is simply not as important to many of us as outcomes and achievements. The "what" is a greater motivator than the "how".

Thirty-five years ago, Nell Morton wrote a wonderful book called, The Journey is Home, sharing stories and reflections on the rise of women's leadership in the Christian faith. The title of this book contains a profound truth of our walk with Jesus – the journey is home, it is exactly where God wants us to be. Wilderness is scary to us because it is unfamiliar, uncomfortable, and unknown. But the best way to get to know wilderness – to make friends with it – is to enter fully in. A few days is not enough. A couple of weeks is not enough. The gift of forty days (with all of its rich and great theological meaning) is just long enough – either we will make friends with wilderness or wilderness just might defeat us. It is both a challenge and an opportunity.

Nature provides many challenges that are neither good nor bad, but they just are – God's creation acting with integrity. Human beings enter wilderness with risk, but also with an incredible capacity to learn, to adapt, to grow, and to improve. Survival skills allow us not only to survive, but to thrive, and it takes time to develop them.

Jesus' forty days in the wilderness is a metaphor for our entire lives of faith – we walk through unknown and unfamiliar territory, learning as we go, hopefully improving and thriving (with God's help). We face limitless temptations and multiple forms of "wild beasts," but in our faith, we never face these alone. We go with God, filled by the Holy Spirit, attended by angelic forces, walking with Jesus, and in the loving grace of a community of Christian friends. This is the journey.

Too often, we seek to leap to Easter, ignoring the wilderness, the work, the sacrifice, the danger, and the challenges we encounter before we get there. But the journey is more important than the destination. God has already taken care of the ending. Our task is to make the journey of life wisely and well. We strive to become more Christ-like, mastering the survival skills to travel our road with integrity and grace. We learn to be more loving, more caring, more giving, more merciful. We become kinder, gentler, patient, and just. We forgive more, share more, and serve more. We are peace-makers, peace-builders, peace-keepers, and peace-lovers. We reject the -isms and phobias that do harm, commit violence, and seek to destroy – sexism, racism, classism, homophobia, xenophobia. We send Satan fleeing by laughing in the devil’s face, choosing instead to pursue God with all our heart, mind, soul, and spirit; choosing to love every child of God on earth as we love ourselves.

The journey is our home. This home created for us by a loving and mighty God. This home decorated with all the equipment we need to live faithfully in our world. This home filled to overflowing with the energy and power of the Holy Spirit. My friends, during this Lententide, enter not a wilderness of danger and threat, but a place where you – where we all – belong. I am excited to take this journey with you. Thanks be to God.

Grace and Peace,
Bishop Hee-Soo Jung

GRANTSBURG: MISSIONS & MEETINGS & MISC.

United Methodist Women

FAITH · HOPE · LOVE IN ACTION

For 2021, our UMW will be focusing on SERVICE projects for our community, our church and our own small group of women. Come with ideas as to how we might serve others throughout the year. The officers will use those ideas and put together a schedule for the year. .

On March 9th four of our ladies (Valetta, Paulie, LuAnne and Mary ) volunteered to represent our church at the Red Cross Blood Drive Bloodmobile being held at Tdawgs. This is our way for our group to share our love to those who are serving at the bloodmobile.

The regular meeting of UMW will be held at the church on Wed. March 17th at 1:00 pm. It is St. Patrick's Day so if you would like - wear green! Paulie Kratchmer will share her talent of card making with us. We will all make a card to take home. Thank you, Paulie!

MISSIONS UPDATE

A couple of years ago Central United Methodist Women assisted with the startup of the "High School Closet". The HS Closet, managed by Susie Retzer, is a place where students are able to pick up personal hygiene and other items of need free of charge. A similar effort has been started at the Middle School by the Guidance Counselor, Deb Ludtke. The United Methodist Women are collecting items for the Middle School. We invite all of our congregation to join us. Items can be dropped off at church during Pastor Lee's office hours on Tuesday or Wednesday. Or you can call LuAnne Martell at 715-222-3016 and she will arrange to pick them up from you. Here is a "wish list" from Mrs. Ludtke: chap stick, deodorant, toothpaste, shampoo, conditioner, feminine products such as tampons and pads, and dental floss. All sizes from sample and travel to full size are welcome. You could also contribute financially to this project by sending a check made out to CUMC please make a note in the memo that it is for this mission. Thank you, Deb Hammer

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Little Boys and Girls in Church

A boy was watching his father, a pastor, write a sermon. "How do you know what to say?" he asked. "Why, God tells me." "Oh, then why do you keep crossing things out?"

A father took his 5-year-old son to several baseball games where The Star-spangled Banner was sung before the start of each game. Then the father and son attended a church on a Sunday shortly before Independence Day. The congregation sang The Star-spangled Banner, and after everyone sat down, the little boy suddenly yelled out, "PLAY BALL!!!"

A 6-year-old was overheard reciting the Lord's Prayer at a church service: "And forgive us our trash passes as we forgive those who passed trash against us."
