A STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

Accomplish the Impossible November 2022

“God is looking for people through whom He can do the impossible – what a pity that we plan only the things we can do by ourselves.” - A.W. Tozer

I recently ran across a story that highlights the power of partnership. In the latter part of the nineteenth century, when the Methodist church was holding its denominational convention, one leader stood up and shared his vision both for the church and society at large. He told the ministers and evangelists how he believed someday men would fly from place to place instead of merely traveling on horseback. But it was a concept too outlandish for many members of his audience to handle.

One minister, Bishop Wright, stood up and angrily protested, “Heresy!” he shouted. “Flight is reserved for the angels!” He went on to elaborate that if God had intended for man to fly, God would have given him wings. Clearly the bishop was unable to envision what the speaker was predicting. When Bishop Wright finished his brief protest, he gathered up his two sons, Orville and Wilbur, and left the auditorium.

That’s right. His sons were Orville and Wilbur Wright. And several years later, on December 17, 1903, those two sons did what their father called impossible. They made four flights that day. The first lasted only 12 seconds, but the fourth lasted 59 seconds and took them 852 feet.

Soon the Wright brothers had built the first practical airplane, the Flyer III, and by 1908, the brothers had demonstrated an improved model in France that flew 60 miles in less than two hours.

The brothers partnered together to accomplish the impossible – and in the process, they changed the world.

A Remnant by God's Grace

I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means!

I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin. God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah and how he pleads with God against Israel? "Lord, they have killed your prophets; they have demolished your altars; I alone am left, and they are seeking my life." But what is the divine reply to him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal." So too, at the present time, there is a remnant, chosen by grace.

(Romans 11:1-5)

I can't believe I am going to have my fourth winter in Wisconsin. Time flies so fast. While I enjoy the beautiful nature in this area, I still can't adapt to the change to the winter season. There were warmer and more beautiful fall days, but frost suddenly threatened to kill my plants at night. Since I brought some Korean vegetables back from Chicago, I should be sure to keep them healthy every year so that I am able to get seeds and plant them next spring. Otherwise, I am unable to keep them every year because most of them are seed crops.

My struggle to adapt to winter season began during my first winter in Wisconsin in 2019. We had snow the first week of October, I was surprised because my plants hadn't flowered yet. Especially since sesame was not ready for winter, of course, they couldn't have seeds yet as well. Early snow froze half of them. I took one of them and planted it in a pot and put it inside my house. Finally, I was able to get seeds for the next year.

I shared my story with our parishioners. They gave me wise advice: "Before we have snow, sometimes frost comes and freezes the plants. You have to cover the plants with blankets." That was a good idea, but I wasn't sure when I would need to do that. I asked them when was it time to plant and to cover them. With their help, during my second winter, I got the chance to wrap my vegetables with a blanket to protect them from being frozen. Of course, I got seeds in my third year as well. I was so proud of what I did and shared the seeds and plants with my Korean colleagues.

Thankfully I shared this information with my Korean colleagues the first week of September this year, because we had frost in the third week of September. I think one of my parishioners said, "We may have frost tonight. My husband will cover my plants with blankets." Hearing that, I said, "I should do it as well." Back home, I took my plants inside my house and thought, 'I will cover them tomorrow because it is not cold yet,' because it was too dark to go over to my garden. But, all the vegetables in my garden were gone because they froze overnight. They didn't wait for me even one night! Yes, I know, the farmer should be diligent. My laziness cost me my sesame plants and I will have no seeds this year.

However, I am not worried about it because I have some remaining seeds from last year. I will still save some seeds for planting in the spring. I reserve the seeds because I heard that ‘the wise farmer saves the seedcorn for next year.’ I am a lazy gardener, but I continue to learn more about gardening every year. I feel like half a gardener.

My experience recalls “an idea of remnant” in the scripture. The Prophet Elijah won over the Baal prophets on Mount Carmel. He encouraged the Israelites and the king to destroy the Baal altars, and kill the four hundred and fifty Baal prophets, showing a victory for God on Mount Carmel. However, after the event happened, he ran away into the wilderness to escape from Jezebel, who was upset with him and wanted to kill him. He was discouraged and disappointed and would die, saying, “I have been very zealous for the Lord God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too” (1 Kings 19:10). However, God said to him, “Yet, I reserve seven thousand in Israel- all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and all whose mouths have not kissed him” (1 King 19:18). The Prophet Elijah got up and moved forward on God’s Word. His faith came to us.

Today, we also experience disappointment, seeing some people leave the church and some who didn’t come back to the church after the Pandemic hit all over the world. The church seems to be downsizing more and more. We are fearful that we might have to close our church soon. However, the Apostle Paul said that God didn’t give up his people. God, who reserved seven thousand faithful people in the past, still keeps His people, including himself, for His kingdom (Romans 11:1-5). Like half a gardener, I know to keep the seeds for the next year, so how does God not know how to keep His people and His church for His kingdom? Did you know you are the remnant of God for His kingdom? It is your turn to keep your faith. Indeed, God reserved more people who didn’t lose their faith during the Pandemic. God may send them to us for His ministry. Let’s move forward like Elijah and Paul!

Blessings,

Pastor Jenny

More Than A Day

As Thanksgiving Day rolls around,
It brings up some facts, quite profound.
We may think that we're poor,
Feel like bums, insecure,
But in truth, our riches astound.

We have friends and family we love;
We have guidance from heaven above.
We have so much more
Than they sell in a store,
We're wealthy, when push comes to shove.

So add up your blessings, I say;
Make Thanksgiving last more than a day.
Enjoy what you've got;
Realize it's a lot,
And you'll make all your cares go away.

'For everyone born, a place at the table...'
A Place at the Table by Shirley Erena Murray

The Holy Trinity gives us a model for life in community. Each person in the Trinity receives and gives. Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer: each is present with sacred worth. Each contributes. To interrupt the flow or become a block would be an offense to God's action. I write today to explore inclusion more fully and celebrate our faithful siblings in Christ who identify as Hispanic or Latino.

September 15-October 15 is designated as Hispanic Heritage Month in The United Methodist Church, giving local congregations the opportunity to celebrate the gifts of the Hispanic culture in worship. As these weeks draw to a close, I invite you to take another step. Is there a Hispanic ministry your church might partner with? The Wisconsin Conference celebrates a robust Hispanic ministry with 26 new churches, equipping from the National Hispanic Plan, and the Instituto de Desarrollo Congregacional (IDC) which prepares those who are planting Hispanic churches. Pick up a The Book of Resolutions 2016 and become a student- advocate for Hispanic Americans and the global community.

The National Institutes of Health advocates that we celebrate the rich heritage and cultural contributions of people of the United States who trace their roots to Spain, to Mexico, and to the Spanish-speaking countries of Central America, South America, and the Caribbean. The NIH "calls on citizens of this nation from all walks of life to look around and welcome new voices to the table. This will help us build stronger communities and in turn, a stronger nation." This year's theme is Unidos: Inclusivity for a Stronger Nation. Diversity is our strength. Hispanic contributions to the culture, the economy, and the future of the nation cannot be denied. This is a varied community, from many different areas and climates, and who speak many different dialects.

One way the Wisconsin Conference is living in solidarity with the Americas, is the Wisconsin Conference Partnership with the Evangelical Methodist Church in Bolivia and Bishop Antonio Huanca. This effort is channeled through the Board of Global Ministries and our chair, Rev. Anita Lang. Through Global Ministries we are aware of the current situation that the Methodist Church in Bolivia is living in, especially with the pandemic, COVID-19. Bolivia is a country in South America. Bolivia is one of the poorest and prettiest nations in South America. Poverty affects the majority of the population, with almost 40 percent of Bolivians living in extreme poverty. The Wisconsin Conference has been purchasing motorcycles so the Superintendents can cross the formidable terrain, carry medicine, and equip the local churches there. If you would like to contribute, we suggest marking your gifts to the Wisconsin Conference for the CHURCH PROJECT IN BOLIVIA ADVANCE # 00430S Vehicles for Evangelization. (The Yamaha Motorcycles Cost per Unit is $5,600.00.)

We are grateful for the saints who have led and built our Hispanic ministries, advocated for justice, and offer the mercy of a cup of cold water and more. Let's be mindful of the need for immigration reform and sensible neighborliness of the kind Jesus proclaims. I need a place at the table. You need a place at the table. I see a day when for everyone born there is a place at the table. May it be so, with God's help.

Know that I am praying for you. Thank you for your ministry.
